Britain, Italy and Japan, it was declared in unofficial circles, were likely to agree to a conference at rive at an understanding for the extension of the 5-5-3 ratio to naval auxiliaries.

France received the President's proposal coldly, and it was predicted freely the government would diplomatically avoid participation in the discussion.

President Coolidge, the White House spokesman made plain, does not expect a speedy acceptance of his proposal for a confer-ence but hopes that it ultimately will be accepted.

By ALBERT W. FOX.

President Coolidge does not expec speedy acceptance of his proposal to hold a conference for further limitano assurance that the powers will accept at all. But he entertains the hope that his proposal will be regarded favorable support.

These facts were made known by the White House spokesman yesterday The President is represented as believ ing it is not quite correct to refer to his proposal as an effort to bring about "a new naval conference." There is a general conference on disarmament at Geneva now, it was explained, although the next meeting of this conference manly disapproval on the bill to au- preparatory commission will not be idea is to suggest to the Washington treaty powers-Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan-that they resume deliberations begun at Washington in 1921, with reference to limitation of cruisers, smaller craft and submarines which types of vessels were left free of limitation

Commenting on the relationship which the general disarmament conference at Geneva would bear to the American proposal, the President's spokesman said that difficulty had dereloped at the general conference over e taken up for limitation.

Mr. Coolidge entertains the view that the naval branch should be taken up first. There already is a formula for limitation of naval armaments based on the 5-5-3 Washington conference ratio, it was pointed out.

Narrowly escaping serious falls when their horses refused jumps and balked repeatedly, several riders last night car-ried off prizes and ribbons at the third indoor horse show of the season, witnessed by a gallery of approximately 700 enthusiastic "fans" at the Riding

Bobby Robey, 9-year-old rider, startled the crowd when his horse, Black Bottom, became unmanageable and nearly hurled the lad into the rail, against which closely packed spectators sought points of vantage. Master Robey, clinging to the animal's mane, prevented a dangerous accident by fending off from the wooden ring with one hand as the horse reared and plunged. His prompt recovery draw an plunged. plunged. His prompt recovery drew an

Another rider, Marshall Orme Exnicios, mastered "Don," an entry which several contestants refused to mount, after an exciting tourney of skill. Despite losing his stirrups, Mr. Exnicios maintained his hold on the horse and compelled it to circle the ring several times. Many mishaps were averted only through similar displays of equestrian cleverness on the part of entrants.

Eulogizing George Washington, James M. Beck, former solicitor gen-eral of the United States, last night assailed "garbage historians" who have assailed the morals of the first birth.

"I wish there were regulations to keep dogs out of the cemetery." he said. "These garbage historians tell us that Mary Ball, Washington's mother, loved to dance, smoked a pipe and was a trial to her distinguished son. As a matter of fact, there is nothing in history to justify any belief other than that she was a worthy mother."

America should pursue her own course among the stars."

By pursuing such a course America could inspire the world to follow her, the senator added.

Reed declared the principles on which this government was founded are as sound today as they were in 1776. He held the present age lacking, however, in the knowledge of fundamentals of government possessed by the fathers.

"They believed the only way a nation could remain free was through keeping the guns in the hands of the people," he said. "They didn't know the day ever would come when property would be confiscated under the terms of a McNary-Haugen bill."

Terming the heritage of Washington "a sacred trust," Gen. Summerall declared we have received from him "concepts, ideals and institutions which are worth preservation at any cost, even the cost of our lives if that price be required."

Visions General's Return. Visions General's Return.

Mrs. Brosseau visioned the first President returning to his country at this time, giving voice to sentiments inspired by the visit. "You allow scoffers, iconoclasts and seekers of cheap notoriety to villify my memory, to put an unworthy construction upon my acts and to interpret my life and my religion as they see fit," was part of the charges he would deliver, in the opinion of the speaker.

Mrs. Sherman, in a brief talk, declared the reconstruction and commemora-

ed the reconstruction and commemora-tion of the Wakefield home a patriotic duty.

Expressing himself on the subject of "the home," Beck held its disintegration in modern times "the supreme disaster to mankind." He blamed George Bernard Shaw, whom he termed an unholy and pernicious thinker, for its declining influence and the waning respect of children for their parents. We can rebuild the State, he sald, but if the home is destroyed the future holds no promise.

The housewives expressed themselves openly yesterday as to the profit they had realized from the school. On a motion of one of their number they gave Mrs. Cross and her able assistant. And they gave Mrs. Nancy Carey, who writes "The Post House Keeper," and whose planning and tireless energy made the school possible, an ovation when she appeared on the platform.

The school therefore could not properly be described by the much-used term "success." It exceeded all expectations, not-only in the great response in numbers represented in the housewives attending, but in the amount of good which obviously they had derived from it.

our investments has again been demonstrated. As a result of continued reduction in prevailing rates of interest, and of satisfactory industrial conditions, there has been a further rise in the market values of our long-term bonds and of our preferred and other stocks. The appraisal of our securities made by the Government Insurance Department shows that the excess of market values over cost has increased during the year by $6,894,266.26. In addition, the sum of $1,729,364.52 has been realized as net profit from the redemption or sale of municipal debentures and other securities which had risen to high premiums. The rate of interest earned on

On our common stocks the dividends now being received are greatly in excess of the dividends payable on the same stocks at time of purchase.

The total surplus earned during the year amounted to $20,457,077.28. From this the following appropriations have been made:

The sum of $2,000,000 has been deducted from the official valuation of our securities to provide for possible fluctuations in market values. An additional amount of $400,000 has been set aside to provide for greater longevity of annuitants. The total held under this heading in excess of Government requirements, is now $1,500,000....

To our policyholders, profits have been paid or allotted during the year to the amount of $9,235,526.80.

After making these deductions and allocations an addition of $5,371,564.56 has been made to the undivided profits. The surplus over all liabilities, contingency accounts and capital stock, now stands at $34,011,565.25. For six years in succession we have increased the profits to participating policyholders. "The Rockefellers were long known to be in control of Wheeling & Lake Erie and to have a large interest in Western Maryland," he said. "These holdings were in preferred shares. When opportunity offered these holdings were purchased—the New York Central, Nickel Plate and Baltimore & Ohio each acquiring one-third of the Wheeling & Lake Erie holdings, and the Baltimore & Ohio acquiring he Western Maryland stock. While the preferred stock of Wheeling & Lake Erie controls the Company for the present, sufficient other shares were purchased in the market to continue that position.

"The reasons for the Baltimore & Ohio purchasing an interest in the Western Maryland were purely economic. More than 60 per cent of the traffic interchanged by the Western Maryland with other roads is with the Baltimore & Ohio and the two properties complement each other in many ways. It does not affect the Western Maryland as a corporation."

It was understood that Japan is basing its acceptance on three premises, first that Foreign Minister Shidehara had expressed to the diet Japan's intention of furshering additional equitable disarmament every way possible; second, Japan's financial and economic condition makes further disarmament most welcome as a relief from tax burdens, and third, Japan feels her international responsibilities make necessay her whole-hearted cooperation with powers for armament reduction.

It was understood Japan, in its acceptance of the Coolidge proposal, would state that at present she has no plans or specifications for an armament reduction, feeling that such agreements and plans should be left to the naval experts of the various powers concerned.

Furthermore, it was believed the atti-tude of the government in accepting unconditionally would be directly op-losed by the sentiment of the navy were said to believe, however, that the acceptance would be approved by the

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG COOLIDGE BELIEVES SPEEDY ARMS MEETING UNLIKELY

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a billous look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you 90 per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver. Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil as a substitute for calomal to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

And the same surprise is said to have been taken by surprise. And the same surprise is said to have been the caused at the French, Italian and Japanese embassies.

None of the diplomats believe, however, that the method pursued by the initial work of the general preparatory disarmament conference and restrict it governments to attend an international conference.

To have sounded out the British government or the British and Japaneses and excluded feelers to the governments of France and Italy might have tended to increase French and Italian suspicions, it is indicated. The proposal might then have assumed the form of an Anglo-American proposition in the eyes of the French.

There remained, therefore, the alternative of simply announcing the invitations to the four governments and bringing all the discussions more or less out in the open. Great Britain and Japan are expected, as a matter of course, to reply favorably. That will put three of the naval powers on record as favoring the proposal and France and Italy will have to either accept or publicly assume the role of obstructing the carrying out of the Coolidge plan.

It is much simpler for France and

Such a refusal, it is explained, might

"President Coolidge now has definitely removed the naval conference from Washington to Geneva," said one official to the correspondent for the Associated Press tonight, "and more than that, he has put new life into the disarmament preliminaries by agreeing to accept the 5-5-3 ratio regarding the United States, Great Britain and Japan for cruisers, torpedo boats and submarines."

THE SUBMARINE OBSTACLE.

The heart of President Coolidge's proposal for further limitation of naval armament is found in this paragraph of his memorandum to the powers concerned:

The American government, for its part, is disposed to accept, in regard to those classes of vessels not covered by the Wash ington treaty, an extension of the 5-5-3 ratio as regards the United States, Great Britain and Japan, and to leave to discussion at Geneva the ratios of France and Italy, taking into full account their special conditions and requirements in regard to the types of vessels in question.

On this rock, in all probability, the proposed conference will split, and the consequences may seriously affect the relations of the United States with other powers.

At the Washington conference Mr. Hughes proposed that the tonnage of submarines be fixed as follows: Great Britain, 90,000; Japan, 60,000; United States, 90,000; France, 60,000. The French delegates objected to this ratio and declared that France would insist upon a tonnage of at least 90,000, Great Britain opposed the French suggestion and declared that unless France accepted a limit of 60,000 tons, no agreement could be reached on the limitation of any auxiliary vessels.

At the recent preparatory conference at Geneva the British delegates sounded out the submarine situation and found that France was immovable.

It is idle to expect France to agree to a limitation upon submarine tonnage that would hold her to an equality with Great Britain. The British battleship and cruiser fleet so vastly overshadows the French navy that France has but one recourse if she hopes to remain safe on the sea. She must have sufficient submarines to offset the British surface fleet. There is no other method of reaching a state of fairly comparative strength.

Great Britain's merchant marine becomes a vital factor as soon as an expansion of French submarine strength is considered. Britain's experience in the late war taught her that submarines are capable of being used with deadly efficiency in disrupting communications. England's insular position makes it necessary for her to maintain the operation of merchant ships during war at all costs. Therefore it is not to be expected that Great Britain will ever agree to the creation by France or any other power of a submarine fleet strong enough to destroy the British line of food communica-

The answer to France's program for additional submarines was increased building of British cruisers.

France has been almost isolated in the Mediterranean by British diplomacy. Both Italy and Spain have made gains in that region at the expense of France, and in each case the hand of British diplomacy was only too plainly exposed. Relations between France and Italy are very unsatisfactory, as conditions in the Riviera have recently disclosed. French policy will surely oppose any suggestion for the limitation of submarines while these conditions exist.

Italy's sea defense also calls for additional submarines. Italy can not hope to build up a surface fleet to cope with possible enemies. The situation calls for air and submarine defense. But Great Britain can not look with any more favor upon a large Italian submarine fleet than upon a French submarine fleet. The only practicable method of meeting an Italian submarine fleet would be by cruisers; hence Britain will not agree to limit cruiser construction if France and Italy are to increase their submarine tonnage.

Eliminating France and Italy, and consider ng only the United States, Great Britain and Japan, it appears that the 5-5-3 ratio could be applied to cruisers by one of two methodsby the scrapping of 200,000 tons by Great Britain and about 75,000 tons by Japan, or by the building of 44 additional cruisers by the United States. Which method is to be adopted? The suggestion that Great Britain shall scrap 200,000 tons of cruisers is met immediately by the objection that cruisers will not be scrapped while the submarine menace exists. Only one alternative is left—the building of cruisers by the United States to equal after delay. Through the legal battle the Japan.

Thus it will be seen that the proposed limitation of naval armament is impossible under present conditions, and the situation resolves itself down to this: The United States should

That is what patriotic and far-seeing Americans in and out of Congress have been demanding. The safety and peace of the United States should be in its own hands.

If an arms parley should be held in response to President Coolidge's memorandum, the United States should not consent to any proposal which would throw the influence of this country against the determination of France and Italy to preserve their security by building as many submarines as they deem necessary. This country wishes to make friends, not enemies. It reserves the right to defend itself by the most suitable means, and it should concede the same right to all other nations.

THE M'NARY-HAUGEN BILL.

The McNary-Haugen bill has been passed by the Senate by a vote of 47 to 39. The passage of the bill by the House is foreshadowed. That it will be vetoed by the President is a foregone conclusion

The attempt by Congress to impose this measure upon the country is an illustration of the depths to which reckless, self-seeking and unscrupulous politics has brought the great body that is supposed to safeguard the people's rights. By combinations that deliberately sacrificed the public interest to private advantage the bill has been thrust forward until it appears probable that only a veto will Fortunately for the country, President Coolidge stands in the way of this iniquitous measure. His veto will kill it. Congress can not muster strength to pass it over his veto.

The McNary-Haugen bill will stand for a long time as an exhibit of Congress at its worst, when intimidation and personal advantage terrorize or corrupt men who have taken oath to serve faithfully. But it will also stand as an exhibit of the faithfulness of an executive who can not be terrorized or corrupted. This bill will not become law. In killing it President Coolidge will confound opponents in his own party and will earn the gratitude of all the people. Every senator and representative whose vote is recorded against the bill will have reason to congratulate himself hereafter.

MR. LA GUARDIA'S CHARGES.

The impeachment proceedings under which Representative La Guardia is attempting to secure the removal of Judge Frank Cooper, of the United States court for the Northern district of New York, have thus far failed to demonstrate that the judge is guilty of moral turpitude or that he has violated his oath of of. fice in any degree whatever.

Mr. La Guardia's case against the jurist is based upon alleged overzealousness in attempting to enforce the Volstead law. The judge is accused by the representative of setting traps to induce bootleggers to violate that law. In testifying in his own behalf before the House committee on the judiciary Judge, Cooper stated that the people entrapped were not innocent people enticed into crime, but wholesale dealers in liquor who were seeking opportunities to dispose of contraband goods in their possession, and, further, that all three of the specific cases cited in the charges were those of former offenders who had been convicted for like crime. He cited numerous de cisions of the Federal courts, including the Supreme Court, wherein it has been held that entrapment by government agents is not only permissible, but proper, "when it consists only in furnishing that opportunity which a defendant of his own volition seeks to violate the Judge Cooper told the committee that for seven years he had been confronted with boys and youths arrested for transporting liquors that were undoubtedly supplied by "higher It was his desire to reach these greater ups. criminals that led him to suggest to the prohibition agents that some plan should be devised whereby the court might learn who these higher-ups were and who were employing the boys. The prohibition agent did devise a plan, the successful culmination of which has led to the institution of the impeachment proceedings.

The Cooper case bears no resemblance whatever to those of the "snooper division" of the prohibition unit, and is in no way analagous to that of the Bielaski plan for catching law violators through night clubs established and maintained at government expense.

NEW YORK'S THEATER CRUSADE.

New York's crusade against indecent plays so far has followed a time-honored course. District Attorney Banton, acting on the request of Acting Mayor McKee, swore out warrants against the actors and managers of three flagrant examples. Arrests were made prisoners were taken to night courts in evening dress, arraigned under the searching eyes of batteries of cameras, and bound over for future action. In retaliation the producers of these plays have obtained court injunctions permitting the performances to continue. Two of the shows had been playing to such meager houses that their closing had been planned for Saturday night. Now it is announced that they will not close as scheduled, for because of the publicity obtained, long lines of ticket purchasers have made their appearance at the box offices, and the standing room only signs

Everything depends now on the attitude of the courts and the continued activity of the district attorney, for nothing new or unusual life has been breathed back into two admittedly dead plays through the publicity obtained. In all probability if past experience repeats itself, a long court fight has been precipitated with injunction and counter injunction, delay standing room only signs will continue to wave bravely in the breezes of Broadway, mute evidence that the publicity obtained is bringing in cash customers whose admission fees are more than sufficient to pay the cost of the outstanding legal talent which the producers unquestionably will retain. The entire country is watching the New York battle with interest, hoping, but not expecting, that the authorities will be successful.

THE MENACE OF CALAMITY.

Telegrams from California give warning of the danger of a flood in the Imperial valley on account of heavy snowfall in the Colorado river watershed. Residents of the valley are apprehensive of a repetition of the disaster which overtook the region twenty years ago, and are sending appeals to Congress for an emergency appropriation to be used in raising and strengthening the levees along the river. The director of the reclamation service has stressed the danger of flood because of the gradual silting of the river bed, thus raising it to a point where high waters would easily overflow the levees. The levees must be raised to correspond with the rise of the river bed. Instead of struggling over the Boulder dam project, which involves disputed questions of flood control, irrigations, and power, the obvious duty of this session of Congress is to make emergency appropriations by which a flood may be averted next summer. Boulde dam, once built, would prevent floods, but Boulder dam at present is only a dream, and perhaps it will never be realized. In the meantime a section of southern California lies under the shadow of a terrible calamity. Ordinary prudence calls for action that will prevent that calamity.

DISTRICT MOTOR TAGS.

Now that Representative-elect Igoe, of Illinois, has asked to be relieved of completing the contract for District automobile license tags. which he took over when the contractor defaulted, the situation becomes increasingly complicated, and the lesson regarding the high cost of cheese paring is driven home. Approximately 85,000 of the 100,000 pairs of tags ordered in the original contract have been delivered, and Mr. Igoe claims that his losses thus far total more than $20,000. One can not wonder that he does not want to pay for the remaining 15,000 tags called for in the original contract, or the 27,650 pairs ordered subsequently.

It should have been apparent to District officials that the quoted price of 11.75 cents a pair was too little. The comptroller general had ruled previously, however, that the lowest bid must be accepted, provided the firm submitting the bid was found upon investigation to be reliable and reputable. With this ruling in mind the contract was awarded after a member of Congress had certified as to the standing of the Chicago firm, and after a performance bond had been posted.

Because of this bond the local government will not lose money on the transaction. The time limit for 1926 tags will have to be extended still further, however, and no one knows when the 1927 tags will all be available. Two distinct sets of tags will continue to create a confusing situation on local streets. District motorists who have trips in mind through the States, and who have not as yet secured 1927 tags, must continue to worry over the nature of the reception they will receive from other police officials.

A STRING ON TAX REFUNDS

An amendment to the deficiency appropriations bill for 1927 concerning refund of internal revenue taxes illegally collected from manufacturers provides that no part of the appropriation shall be available for refund unless a bond has been filed providing for the immediate repayment to the United States of such part of the amount refunded as is not distributed by the recipient to the persons who purchased the articles for consumption. The amendment was tacked on to the bill on the floor of the House, and later thrown out by the Senate. In the subsequent conference it was found impossible to come to an agreement. On Thursday the bill was again voted on in stands deadlocked.

The amendment in question is unfair in many respects. The House has adopted the attitude that manufacturers pass on all taxes to the ultimate consumer. Many cases are on record, however, in which small companies operated over considerable periods believing that their product was tax free. Eventually, however, a retroactive tax was imposed. The tax could not have been passed on to the consumer and must have been borne by the manufacturer, paid for out of profits. Under the House amendment he could not obtain a refund.

Even large manufacturers probably would not feel justified in applying for refund should the amendment be enacted into law. It would be an expensive and an almost impossible task for the manufacturer to trace his products to the consumer. Furthermore, it would he a task for which he would receive no recompense.

As a rule, relief from taxes reaches the consumer in the form of lowered prices. The House should concur with the Senate in discarding the amendment, so that the government may fulfill its obligation to refund illegally collected taxes issues of life."—Proverbs iv:23.

The deepest concerns of human life center in the condition of the human heart. Christ in His judgments of character measured men by the quality of their conduct only in so far as conduct was an expression of a motive and desire of the heart. "As a man thinketh," He said. The real measure of hour was intention. The real measure of purity was not the outward act but the inner desire and motive. There is need in these days for reaffirmation of this principle.

"KEEP THY BODY with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life." There are well-meaning folks who are convinced that disposition, character and the condition of the spirit itself are dependent upon our bodies. No one will question that our physical condition contributes to happiness and peace of mind and that disease often accompanies immoral conduct. It is equally true, however, that in the midst of keep physical suffering, we find demonstrations of strength of character which neither disease nor health can guarantee.

we find demonstrations of strength of character which neither disease nor health can guarantee.

"KEEP THY MIND with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life." There is a growing emphasis in these days upon intellectual fitness for the living of life. With increasing stress upon this qualification, the conviction comes that a trained mind is a guarantee of character. Clarence Darrow would have us believe that all criminals are uneducated and that ignorance and poverty, more than anything else, have filled the fails. No one can question that ignorance and poverty accompany criminality, but it is equally true that intellectual training may equip a man for evil conduct as well as good. One reason why we find so few trained minds in prison is because training has given skill in outwitting the law and evading punishment.

"KEEP THY HEART with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life." The real meaning of Christianity and the real guarantee of character is the harmonizing of our human desires with the desires of the Divine Heart. It matters not how weak or broken our bodies be if our hearts beat with the Heart of God. It matters not how would sciplined our minds if our hearts see warm with the love of God. It matters not how weak our wills if our hearts seek only the desires of the Divine, for after all, we are more than body, mind or will. These are but rooms in which we live. Out of our hearts are the issues of life.

PLAN MADE TO SPEED POTOMAC DEEPENING

Office States.

Pans for speeding the work of deepening the Potomac river channel to a depth of 24 feet and widening it 200 feet, in order to make Washington available to deeper draft navigation, were revealed by the United States ingineer's office yesterday.

It was announced that, beginning next week the hydraulic pipe-line dredge Talcott will begin removal of bars in the upper portion of the Potomac, while the hopper dredge, Willett's Point, is dredging the lower river in the vicinity of Kettle Bottom shoals and Colonial Beach. The upper river work will begin at Naval Magazine shoals. It was announced that the District boat, Chicago, will leave Washington today for the lower Potomac and Rappahannock rivers and other points on the west shore of Chesapeake bay, on fish-stake patrol duty, and will assist in setting fish-stake lines for the next two months.

Satisfying Results

Mrs. R. L. Mundy

Jackson, Miss.—"Dr. Pierce's medicines have been used in my father's family ever since I was a little girl and they have always given entire satisfaction. I can recommend the 'Goluen Medical Discovery,' the 'Favorite Prescription' and the 'Pleasant Pellets.' They are the ones we used. My father always said the 'Golden Medical Discovery' could not be equaled as a blood enricher and to build up one's general health; my mother thought the 'Favorite Prescription' superior to any other tonic a woman could take; I found the 'Pleasant Pellets' a perfect remedy for constipation and billiousness."—Mrs. R. L. Mundy, 726 So. State'St. Every druggist has Dr. Pierce's medicines. Write Dr. Pierce, president of the Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., if medical advice is required.—Adv.

BUDGET BUREAU GIVEN BOTANIC GARDEN FIGURES

Lynn and Hess Submit Estimates in the Hope of Appropriation Now.

HAS LIBRARY APPROVAL

Estimates on the Botanic garden improvement were submitted to the budget bureau yesterday by David Lynn, Capitol architect, and Supt. Hess, of the garden, in the hope that an appropriation will be included in the secand deficiency bill before Congress ad-

Journs.

The plan for development of the garden south of Maryland avenue was approved yesterday by the joint committee on the library, with recommendation that Congress appropriate funds before adjournment.

Estimates placed before the committee by William E. Parsons, Chicago architect, show it will cost approximately $876,000 to build the conservatory in the square bounded by Maryland avenue, B, First and Second streets southwest, this being in addition to $820,000 already authorized by Congress for acquisition of two squares extending from Maryland avenue to Canal street between First and Second streets. street between First and Second street making the garden's total cost $1,696.

Yesterday's committee action will make possible removal of the Bartholdi fountain, blocking completion of the Meade memorial in the old gardens between Maryland and Pennsylvania avenues, and its placement in the southern half of the new gardens between B and Canal streets.

Detailed estimates on the cost of the new garden work include $465,000 for the stone facade along the south side of Maryland avenue and extending back for a considerable distance toward B street; $130,000 for the rear portion of glass and steel construcback for a considerable distance toward B street; $130,000 for the rear portion of glass and steel construction; $245,000 for the glass dome in the central portion of the Maryland avenue square, designed to shelter tall tropical plants, and $35,000 for the director's quarters at the Canal street end of the gardens.

The conservatory will be under one roof but divided in sections for various forms of plant life. The stone front will conform to appearance of other mall buildings and will contain numerous arches to admit light and air to the flowers. Lieut. Col. U. S. Grant 3d, director, office of public buildings and public parks, estimated the renovation of the Ford theater building on Tenth street as a Lincoln museum would cost $100,000.

Ambassador Herrick On Visit to Houghton

Paris, Feb. 11 (By A. P.).—The American Ambassador, Myron T. Herrick, left for London today on the regular noon-day passenger air liner.

At the embassy it was said there was no significance in Mr. Herrick's trip, which was planned a week ago. He is to pass Saturday and Sunday as the guest of Allanson B. Houghton, American Ambassador to Great Britain. The plane carrying Mr. Herrick encountered fog after reaching England and was compelled to land at Lympne, Kent. The Ambassador continued his trip to London by train.

Puller sighed and dropped into the large armchair in the hall, still wearing his hat and overcoat.

"I got a sketchy estimate from the contractor," he said. "Elsie, that confounded house would cost us $45,000, and counting the land!"

Mrs. Pullen gave a small, shrill squeal. "Not $45,000, Fred?"
He nodded gloomily. "That's what he said—and he's shaving the price pretty close at that."

"I'll bet he's cheating you, Fred!" She seated herself on the edge of the couch, a hand on each knee. "He's trying to rob you."

Mr. Work's Pointer On Auction Bridge

Mr. Work, if addressed care of The Washington Fost, will answer your suction bridge questions. A stamped, self-addressed envelope is necessary.

THE pointer for today is:

With a bust and no long suit except the one doubled by the partner, the double should be taken out.

In yesterday's article, consideration was given to the case of a doubled suit doubled and no other strength. It may be stated as a broad rule that a Bust are seep as of a doubled suit-bid of one is inadvisable, unless the holding of the suit doubled contains unusual strength (e. g., King-Queen-x-x-x) and then hand has one side trick. Of course, there might be some freak holding, such as seven or more small cards of the suit, which would justify a pass; but rules are not framed for such unusual hands.

An example was given yesterday of the much more trying case when the doubled suit tonsists of but four cards, and all the other suits of three. Under such conditions a No Trump may be the best declaration when the doubled suit is not stopped, a No. Trump or a Business and all the other suits of three. according to Dr. C. B. Wheelock, the secretary.

Now, in 1922, the club had a banquet at the sanitarium and 253 attended. The oldest banqueter was a woman 100 years of age. Three other nimble eaters were beyond 90. The average age of those in attendance was given as 38 years, and the combined age as over 21,000 years.

The basic requirement for membership in this club is the attainment of 75 years of age. It will be seen that the Battle Creek club has seen the call and gone them five years better. Possibly this article will bring some club with a minimum requirement of 80 years to the attention of this column. Maybe in a few years we will hear of clubs to which no one less than 100 years old is eligible.

Next year will be 100 years since the inauguration of Andrew Jackson, and those belonging to the Jackson and those they are to the difference of the treatment of the treatment that such an inquiry brough him little.

were tough old birds, good for a century sometimes.

Personally, I had rather see another type of old folks club formed. The essential for membership in that better type of club would be working efficiently and profitably at 70 years of age and over. I feel certain that such a club would find a long list of eligibles at its foundation, and a quarter of a century later it could raise its requirements to working efficiently and profitably at 80 years of age, and still keep its roster full. Such is the plain trend of events.

while Washington Railway & Electric common which sold at 200 on Thurs-lay, soared 30 points with 10 share ecorded sold at 230, a gain of 45 points points to the fact that the New York and Boston buyers whose activities, last year ran the shares up to 255, are interested in keeping the price up. Certain it is that no local investors are placing buying orders at or near the present quotation. Federal-American Co. common was strong and 25 shares sold at 34½, the fraction representing a gain over last preceding sale. In the bond division Washington Gas Light 6s, series B, sold at 104½, while Barber & Ross, Inc., 6½ s sold unchanged at 99½.

Five members of the District Bank rs association have been named as lelegates to attend the third Pan-

Money Conditions Continue Easy.

Money Conditions Continue Easy.

The outstanding features of the security markets consist of a further continuance of easy money conditions, the ease with which substantial new offerings have been absorbed, and the improvement in sentiment as a whole.

Says Moody's weekly review.

The prevailing low money rates, with little prospect of an advance, have encouraged speculation as to a possible reduction of the rediscount rate. The attention of the market is still largely focused upon the rails, and the imagination of dividends by one of the Western roads has a stimulating effect upon stocks of those roads upon which dividend calcarations are anticipated in the near future.

New bond offerings are upon a scale of about twice that of a year ago and account for the slight downward tendency of the bond market. In summing up Brookmire's sounds a word of caution against indiscriminate buying of bonds and declares that values rather than yields should be considered.

AUTO COMPETITION TO GO, HANNA STATES

Ban on Downtown Parking Will Benefit Street Cars, Report Says.

Downtown parking is going to become more and more difficult until the private nobile will be eliminated as a competitor to the street cars, in the view of John H. Hanna, as expressed in his annual report as president of the Capital Traction Co., submitted yesterday to fraction Co., submitted yesterday to in list directors.

Street car patronage has declined its steadily since 1919 and continued to do so last year. Hanna said, the percentage of loss in the number of revenue passengers carried on street cars having been 1.4 per cent, whereas there was a 40 per cent increase in passengers on the company's motorbuses. Notwithstanding shrinking passenger statistics, revenue from fares showed a small gain, due to increasing use of buses that charge a 25-cent fare. Hanna's report intimated that the continued increase of automobile licenses issued was uniform with the continued decrease of passengers carried, and added: "Application of stricter traffic regulations is only one indication of the congestion that is making itself felt and which must ultimately result in traffic rules which will make the problem of obtaining proper parking space even more difficult for private automobiles in the downtown district, and which will tend downtown district, and which will tend to reduce the competition from this type of transportation."

Crisp Measure Rejected.

The final effort of the opponents was to substitute the Curtis-Crisp farm relief bill and this lost on a roll call, COFFEE—Spot, steady; small inquiry, Rio No. 7, 14 15-16; Santos, No.

All of these maneuvers had made it rather apparent that the bill as a whole would pass, so that the final roll call was merely the seal to what had gone before. The votes which the proponents of the bill gained from those who either changed their views or had not been voting on the last test came from:

Ferris, of Michigan; Gould, of Maine; Hawes, of Missouri; Pittman, of Nevada; Ransdell, of Louisiana; Robinson, of Arkansas; Sheppard, of Texas; Smith, of South Carolina; Stewart, of Iowa; Trammell, of Florida.

Although the House has twice defeated the McNary-Haugen bill—not, however, in the present exact form—it was ed the McNary-Haugen bill—not, how-ever, in the present exact form—it was confidently predicted last night that the measure would obtain a majority there by the middle of next week. The effort to have the Senate bill substituted will be the major battle in all probability.

New York, Feb. 11 (By A. P.)—Uncertainties of pending farm relief legislation seemed to increase today the disposition to even-up commitments in advance of the two-day adjournment in the cotton market. Alternating apurts of realizing or liquidation and covering caused more or less irregularity, and after selling up from 14.02 to 14.18. May contracts, sold off to 14.01 in late trading, compared with 14.08 at the close of the previous day, May closed at 14.02 the previous day, May closed at 14.02 the general market closing steady at net declines of 2 to 6 points.

May closed at 14.02 the general market closing steady at net declines of 2 to 6 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 3 to 6 points in response to rather disappoints in response to rather disappoints in the proposed buying. There was considerable Liverpool buying during the first hour, presumably against sales in the English market, while there aso was buying here against sales in New Orleans.

This demand helped the advance which carried prices up to 13.97 for March and 14.58 for Cotoer contracts during the forenoon, or about 10 to 12 points net higher. After the close of Liverpool, buying from that quarter was withdrawn, while there appeared to be a little more hedge selling, and prices eased off during the afternoon, under a renewal of liquidation.

There was another sput of covering on a buillish interpretation of the week-end figures which sent prices back to nearly the high level of the morning, but the market eased again after 2 oclock, reaching the lowest levels of the proposed farm relief legislation. If passed, were expressed in some quarters, and may possibly have been a I factor on the decline.

The week-end figures showed a decrease of 146,844 bales in the world's lyisible supply of American for the sine week, and 298,375 for the same week last year.

NEW YORK CURB TRANSACTIONS INDUSTRIALS.

WALL STREET NEWS BRIEFS

New York, Feb. 11 (By A. P.).—The New York Stock Exchange, the Curb Market, Cotton Exchange and all other securities and commodities markets will be closed tomorrow in observance of Lincoln's birthday. As it is a legal holiday, the banks will be closed.

The month of May has been set aside by the Atlantic States shippers advisory board as a test period in a campaign to bring about the heavier loading of freight cars by shippers, receivers and railroads during 1927. First efforts will be directed in learning the loading performance of all cars used in handling cement, brick, fertilizer, sugar and sait, and with these results obtained, it is expected to extend the movement to other commodities.

The Manila Electric Corporation declared a dividend of 20 5-6 cents a share on the common, payable March I to holders of record February 15, also a dividend of 62½ cents a share on the common, payable May 2 to stock of record March 31. In five preceding quarters, the company paid 50 cents on the common and prior to the close of 1925 paid 62½ cents quarterly.

Net profit of Famous Players-Lasky Corporation for the first nine months of 1926 was $3,640,338, against $3,459-862 in the same period of 1925.

Production of finished steel bars in the Pittsburgh district this month probably will show improvement over January. Operations are between 60 and 70 per cent of capacity, with ship-ments at about the same basis. In-come business in strip steel shows more variety.

The preliminary statement of Gard-ner Motor Co. for 1926 shows net earn-ings of $126,286 before taxes and charges.

The Vanadium Corporation's holdings of cash and marketable securities now exceed $3,000,000 against $2,577,000 at the close of 1925.

Gross earnings of Western United Gas & Electric Co. for 1926 were $6,758,-887, an increase of $714,834 over 1925. Net earnings were $3,125,499, a gain of $612,254.

By WESTBROOK PEGLER.

N EW YORK, Feb. 11.—Resolving itself into a court of justice for the day, the great cauliflower cabinet of the State of New York held court today and sentenced several prominent citizens to stand in the corner for varying lengths of time as punishment for unethical business practices in connection with the recent boxing demonstration by Charles Phil Rosenberg and Bushy Graham.

The Messrs. Rosenberg and Graham, and their respective managers, the Messrs. Champ Segal and Will Parr, were suspended for one year, and Mr. Jess McMahon, the matchmaker of Tex Rickard's firm which perpetrated the schibition, was suspended for an indeterminate period.

Then, determined to be very severe rminate period. Then, determined to be very severe Then, determined to be very severe to some one of importance to demonstrate that the great and small are equal under the law, the cauliflower assizes wreaked terrible justice on Mr. Rickard, the president of the $5,000,000 cauliflower concern known as the Madison Square Garden Corporation. Mr. Rickard was reprimanded.

But somehow, in the haste and confusion of adjudging the day's confusion of adjudging the day's docket, the cauliflower magistrates neglected to order the refund of certain moneys to customers who patronized the occasion at Mr. Rickard's place, paying as high as $11 a ticket at the box office and more than that elsewhere for the privilege of watching a champion-ship bout in which no champion-ship was at stake.

In view of the fact that Rosenber waived the bantamweight championship eight hours before he entered the ring eight hours before he entered the ring by failing to make the weight, and in view of the further fact that Mr. Rickard knew 24 hours in advance that he would not make the weight, some of the customers have indicated that they would like to have about 50 per cent of their admission prices refunded.

Their argument has been that Mr. Rickard plainly advertised on his biliboards and stated on his tickets that he would hold a world championship prize fight, and charged prices accordingly, only to serve the customers with a very poor prize fight between two generally incompetent prize fighters, with no championship at stake.

The unethical business practiced between the two prize fighters and their no championship at stake.

The unethical business practiced between the two prize fighters and their respective shiselers or managers was merely a routine felony under the cauliflower statutes, and there must be some peculiar significance in the wrath of the magistrates over an offense commonly regarded as an amiable form of fraud.

Under the cauliflower code the champion is allowed no more than 37½ per cent of the gross receipts and the challenger not less than 12½ per cent, and contracts to this effect were uttered by Mr. Rickard, per Mr. McMator.

"Now, dear, be sure and strike the ball."

The Atlanta Women's Golf association says it is foolish to think good golf depends upon perfect quiet—why, the very idea—and sponsors a tournament to prove it. Husbands and male golfers unattached are cordially invited.

BROOKLYN. N. Y., Feb. 11.—Jimmy Burgess, Georgetown's flying track captain, joined the ranks of the double winners of the great Suburban quarter-mile race tonight, but it took a stout heart and a desperate last-second leap for the spider-legged star to add his name to the four other quarter-mile immortals.

Burgess nipped Vincent Lally, of the Columbus council, K. of C., at the very tape when it seemed that the collegian had to be content with the runner-up position. Ray Robertson, of the Boston A. A., was five yards back of Lally in third place and Allan Helfrich, of the New York A. C., was fourth, a step behind the Bostonian.

Burgess tonight scored his sec ond successive victory in the classic, which was the feature of the Knights of St. Anthony games at the 106th Infantry armory in Brooklyn tonight.

With a scrubbed track, making for ast time, the 3,000 or more spectators soked for a speedy effort from the trong field, and they were not disap-ointed. Burgess covered the double-urlong in the clinking time of 51 sec-nds flat.

Urmey's Field Goal in Final 5 Seconds Decides Game

seen here this year, the Generals coming out victors by a 34 to 32 count when Capt. Urmey sunk a field goal to win in the final five seconds. The first half was nip-and-tuck throughout with first the Generals and then the Old Liners taking the lead, but when the period ended the score stood 18 to 15 in favor of Maryland.

Groop drew first blood for the Blue and White when he sunk a free try from the foul line. He was immediately followed by White and Spotts with a goal, thus giving the locals a five-point advantage before the invaders started their scoring with Mike Stevens' field shot.

Boyd returned with a double-decker and Stevens sunk another to put his Boyd returned with a double-decker and Stevens sunk another to put his team one point in the lead. From then on the play was back and forth, with Spotts leading the Generals' attack for the half with 10 points and Boyd with six, showing the way to his team-mates.

Both teams appeared off in their shooting, but some of the prettiest defensive work exhibited this year was seen. Capt. Urmey and Spotts of the Generals, and Adams and Faber, of the Old Liners, on numerous occasions broke through for goals after dazzling pass work. Boyd, high-point man of the in-vaders, looped several beautiful ringers, while Spotts was particu-larly accurate under the basket.

The Generals rushed to the front in the second half when Ebert looped two from the field in rapid succession, but Adams, Boyd and Dean soon put their team in front again. Fast and hard basketball with the ball alternating up and down the floor without a single shot was on tap throughout the half, and prior to Urmey's winning doubledecker the score had stood at 32-all for several minutes.

Hahn Will Beat Wide

New York, Feb. 11 (By A .P.) .- Al though track experts here agree that Edvin Wide, of Sweden, is a great runner, they believe he will be beaten in an indoor mile race by Lloyd Hahn, fleet distance star of the New York Athletic club.

fleet distance star of the New York Athletic club.

Commenting on his first indoor appearance, they point out that Wide is experiencing the same difficulty encountered by Paavo Nurmi in rounding the sharp armory turns. Hahn, on the other hand, is a finished indoor performer whose six successive victories thus far indicate he is in peak form for a duel with Nurmi's conqueror.

A comparison of Wide's opening exhibition at 2,500 yards in Newark, N. J., with Nurmi's record mile and a half race in 1925 shows that the Abo Antelope would have left his European far behind. According to timers, Nurmi passed the 2,500-yard mark—140 yards from the finish—in 6:18 as against Wide's figure of 6:28 4-5. The Finn then continued to the mile and a half tape in 6:39 2-5 for his record.

Others who either will join the squad bound from Washington or have been ordered to go to Tampa direct from their homes are Pitchers Joe Carroll, Decatur Jones, Horace Lisenbee, George Murray, Louis McEvoy and Frank Burke and Catchers Berger and Tate.

Bennie Tate has not yet come to terms with Griffith but the fact that bennic Take has not yet come to terms with Griffith but the fact that he has been ordered to report, nothwithstanding a rule of the Nats that no players will be allowed to come to camp until they have signed their contracts, indicates that the differences between the Harrisian catcher and the Washington club owner are not very great and that "Bennah" will be coaxed into the fold shortly after his arrival in the Alligator State.

Hollis Thurston, under Manager Harris's plan, was to report with this first bunch and gradually work his arm back to form, but the player, it seems, has some plans of his own which do not fit in with those of the club. Accompanying his signed conract was a note saying that business affairs at his home in Los Angeles would keep him from Tampa until March 1.

Griffith has reminded him that baseball is his real business, and that the pitcher must arrange his plans so as to join the team not later than February 20.

The stop itself was remarkable, but the climax of the brilliant play lay in the way his mind worked. Bell instinctively knew that Ruth had taken a big lead and would be sliding back to the bag. With his back to the bag.

Bell deliberately let himself fail. He came down on top of Ruth and touched him with the ball as they rolled over and over to one side of the bag.

To show how rapidly Bell's brain functioned—he realized that it would be almost impossible to throw Lazzeri out at first. He had to get Ruth or nothing. He didn't hesitate. This may sound simple as I explain it, but remember that all this mental and muscular effort had to take place in the flash of a second.

Maryland's improved team completes two weeks of strenuous action with a game tonight at Lexington. Va. The Old Liners, recent conquerors of Penn, are scheduled to encounter the Virginia Military Institute five. Maryland's prestige for the season in the Southern conference rests, in a degree, with the outcome of the game.

while Georgetown has been idle all week and will be until Thursday when the William and Mary five will be entertained, Coach John D. O'Reilly has been giving his charges an abundance of work. He has not been satisfied with their showing and a different team with about the same faces in the lineup, is looked forward to by Georgetown followers

FOR HIGH FIVES

DURHAM, N. C., Feb. 11 (By A. P.).

—Decision to conduct a championship high school basketball tournament for the teams of the South was reached at a meeting here today of representatives of Duke university. Durham Chamber of Commerce and others.

The tourney, if present plans are found to be satisfactory, will be played in the gymnasium at Duke university the latter part of fext month.

The tournament will be the first ever held for Southern high school teams and will be conducted along similar lines as the Southern con-ference tourney in Atlanta.

It was decided that the champions of each of the Southern States would be invited to participate. Efforts are now being made to get in touch with the champions of those States in which championships have already been settled and to be ready to communicate with the others as soon as the championship is decided. All expenses of teams except their railroad fare will be paid. Final plans to be worked out at another meeting to be held within the next few days, it was said.

Stantons and Eagles

To Battle Tomorrow The Anacostia Eagles, District unlimited champions, will meet their strongest local opponents of the season tomorrow at the Congress Heights auditorium when they face the Stanton A. Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsifiest creosote that is pleasant to take Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soother and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosot goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germi.

PIMPLES AND BLACK-HEADS ALL OVER FACE

Was ashamed to be seen-simple

Munden, Va., Aug. 5:—"Awhile ago I began to be troubled with enlarged pores and blackheads. Then pimples developed, and even boils. My skin was very sore and disfigured and unsightly I was ashamed of it. I tried about everything to be had for pimples, but with no good results. I had heard Resinol Ointment and Soap so highly recommended for troubles like mine, I decided to try them. After one treatment there was a decided improvement, and the pimples began to fade away. I advise everybody with skin trouble to try Resinol." (Signed) Miss Hazel Beasley.

An imposing gathering attended the conference, which was arranged by Dr. Charles D. Walcott, secretary of the institution, some weeks before his death Wednesday. In deference to his death-bed request, the sessions, concluding with a luncheon, went forward as scheduled, presided over by Chief Justice Taft, and participated in by the entire Smithsonian establishment, headed by the President of the United States. Many of the highest minds of government, science and industry attended. The program included inspection by the visitors of a carefully arranged exhibit of the researches and publications now sponsored by the Smithsonian, increased expenditure for the expansion of this department being one of the desires of institution officials.

Short Wave Lengths Urged in Broadcasting

The solution of the radio broadcast ing problem can be found in changing from the present system of wave lengths to short waves, Dr. S. M. Kintner, chief research engineer of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co. of Pittsburgh, Pa., told the City club at a luncheon forum yesterday at club at a luncheon forum yesterday at the club.

Dr. Kintner said his company had been experiments with the short wave and that they had succeeded in broadcasting around the world. Programs broadcast from their station have been picked up at Melbourne. Australia, he said. The maximum of sensitivity in receiving wets has been reached, he declared, and more sensitivity would destroy the value. He traced the history of radio and said his company had been experimenting for some time with a crystal which they believe will solve the problem of interference.

HOUSE VOTE INQUIRY

Rest of 40 Taken Following Gives Committee Authority to Subpena Witnesses and Take Testimony.

(By the Associated Press.)
Inquiry by its judiciary committe trict, alleging conspiracy with prohibition agents to entrap dry law violators, was ordered yesterday by the House.

Without a record vote it adopted a resolution to give the committee authority to subpena witnesses and take testimony under oath. The charges were brought by Representative LaGuardia, (Republican), New York.

Chairman Oraham, who presented the resolution, said the committee in requesting this authority did not wish its actions construed as indicating any belief of guilt. He explained that several hearings had been held and that as LaGuardia and Representative Celler. (Democrat), New York, who also requested inquiry into the judge's conduct, both proposed to call additional witnesses, the committee felt that it should have authority to administer oaths.

TREE MUTILATION CITED

Terming the nominations of Benjamin P. Adams and John W. Childress for public utilities commissioners as "obnoxious to the last degree to any one who believes in fair dealing and honest government," the Brightwood Citizens association in the Brightwood school last night adopted a resolution protesting against their nomination and confirmation.

childress and Adams were declared unft for the positions to which they have been nominated because "both are real estate agents and have been interested in dealing in and loaning money on the bonds and stocks of the utility companies of the District."

The resolution of protest which was adopted unanimously charged that one of the nominees serves in an official capacity under a director of the Washington Railway & Electric Co., while the other has served as an agent for other public service corporations.

Members of the association pointed out that since the nomination of Childress and Adams a month ago there have been more than 100 meetings of trade and citizens organizations here. None of the organizations expressed their approval of the nominations, it was declared.

Immediately after adoption of the resolution the association reindorsed William McKay Clayton for people's coursel.

Control Over Permits Asked for Eldridge MARLA

The District commissioners yesterday sought additional power from Congress for Director of Traffic M. D. Eldridge. Pollowing the ruling in equity court last week that Eldridge lacks authority to cancel, in advance of their trials, the auto drivers' permits of persons charged with offenses, the pensitue for which include mandatory revocation, the commissioners approved a bill, prepared by the traffic director, to bestow on him that authority.

Eldridge's proposal to begin operation of the traffic signals an hour sariler such morning, namely at 70 clock, was approved, as was also his earlier each morning, name p'clock, was approved, as was new arrangement of one-way new arrangement of one and traffic signal plan for and traffic signal plan for square, as recommended to the com-missioners last week.
